All the attorneys interested in the receivership of the Indiana Hedge and Wire Fence Company were before Judge Leathers yesterday in an attempt to straighten matters over the appointment of Edward Raub as receiver. The petition was brought by the Indiana State Bank, which has judgments against the company Thomas Taggart and Sterling R. Holt are principal stockholders in the concern, and are also being sued by former stockholders for the recovery of money alleged to have been secured through fraudulent representations. The defendants are represented by Smith & Corbly and Wilson & Townley, and the plaintiffs by Elliott, Elliott & Littleton and Noel & Lahr. Raub was appointed receiver with the approval of Wilson. Littieton said he asked the two men about i and they were willing. Smith says he is the attorney for both Taggart and Holt well as a stockholder. He said Raub is attorney for the bank and that the bank is preparing to sue the stockholders on the judgments. As a stockholder he said he had a right to be consulted in the appointment. Noel then told Smith it was not the intention to sue him, but no adjustment could be reached. Taggart and Holt are both out of the city and Judge Leathers told the attorneys to get together, ' possible and compromise, or wait until Taggart and Holt return and then come into court again.

Damage Suit Has Gone the Rounds. The suit of Lizzie S. Green against Emma Thornton for $5,000 damages was heard in Superior Court, Room No. 2, yesterday. Mrs. Green alleges that in crossing Massachusetts avenue, Oct. 4, 1894, she was run over by a horse driven by Mrs. Thornton. She avers the horse was being driven rapidly down the street. She was knocked down and Fire Chief Webster dragged her from under the horse's feet. Mrs. Thornton says Mrs. Green ran in front of her horse. The suit is of long standing and has gone the rounds of all the rooms in the Superior Court. The first suit was brought in Judge McMaster's court about four years ago. A verdict was returned by a jury and a new trial was granted. Then the case was venued into Judge Carter's court. Judge Carter did not wish to try the case and it was sent to Judge Leathers.

Validity of Law Is Involved.

Sarah A. Hibben yesterday filed a cross complaint in Judge Carter's court in the suit of William C. Smith against Sarah A. Hibben, the Financial Exchange, Joseph A. Patton, Elwood W. Seamon and the Indiana Bermudez Asphalt Company for the enforcement of a street improvement lien for improving a street in Irvington. She says the assessments against her property amounted to $5:414, and the law under which it was made is unconstitutional. She are not sufficient to invite capital to it as asks the court to prevent foreclosure proceedings on that ground.

Probate Matters.

Ernest V. Clark was yesterday appointed taxpayers of this locality should organize administrator of the estate of Abbie J. Fearis, with the will annexed, and gave $2,000 bond. Peter Pfisterer was appointed guardian of Florence M. and Elizabeth Brandenberger, and gave a bond of $100. Willis K. Miller was appointed administrator of the estate of Verlinda Miller, and gave $100 bond.

Claim Damages for Personal Injuries. John Frances Classic, by Catherine A. Classic, his next friend, yesterday filed suit against Joseph A. Hughey and Bartholomew D. Brown, proprietor of the West Indianapolis planing mill, for $15,000 damages. He alleges that while employed in the mill two fingers were cut off by a rip saw.

A Judgment for $19,017.

Judge Carter yesterday entered judgment for $19,017 for the defendants in the suit of John A. Murphy against the Manufacturers' Gas Land Improvement Company. The suit was brought on contract.

18850. Sherrin vs. Flinn. Grant C. C. Affirmed Dowling, J .- 1. When an aged and in firm parent transfers valuable property to a child without consideration or upon a promise; of a home and maintenance the transaction is scrutinized closely by the courts, and no tolerance is shown to anything resembling fraud or deceit on the part of the grantee. 2. In an action to cancel deeds and quiet the title to real estate where plaintiff pleads ownership in the lands in dispute, and that the execution of the deeds under which the defendants claim the title was obtained by imposition and fraud, and that defendants claim the land by virtue of such deed, and that the feed ought to be set aside, and that the equitable title belongs to plaintiff, and that the relief to which he is entitled and which he demands entitles him to a decree quieting the title, the complaint is sufficient against a demurrer; and held also that upon the first hearing plaintiff is entitled to a ew trial as of right. And the mere fact that plaintiff demands damages on account of defendant having cut and removed timber from the land does not render the action any less an action to quiet title, nor will a court of equity require plaintiff to establish his claim beyone doubt, but by a fair preponderance, taking into account the credibility of the witnesses. 19155. Criterions vs. Monitors......Marion The Ramblers did not bowl a consistent game last night and as a result lost two of the three games to the Prospects. The first and third scores of the Ramblers were low, while in the second game they rolled over 1,600 and won by a margin of 103 pins. The Prospects won the third game by eleven pins. The Meteors had easy work taking three from the Deweys and exchanged places with the latter team in the championship table. The Marotts won two from the Lawtons. The games in the South Side League were interesting. The individual scores of the Independent League were as follows:

Park are becoming quite frequent and the highwaymen, who are thought to be young, have no hesitation in using means which may cause death to their victims. Tuesday night about 10:30 o'clock an unknown man was sand-bagged at Market and California streets. The man was seen to fall and others rushed to his assistance, while his assailants fled. The man was taken away by friends before the police arrived and his name was not learned. He was badly injured and bled a great deal from a gash on the head. Dr. Parsons was held up
